

THE FOURTH COMMISSION

of

H.M.S. CENTAUR

The Fighting 'C'

1963-1965

THE

Captain O. H. M. St. J. Steiner, R.N.

CAPTAIN'S

FOREWORD

You may perhaps recall that at our Commissioning Ceremony I said that everyone had his special part to play in the ship but that we must work as a team and not as individuals. This we most certainly have done – we have trusted one another and have worked and played together as friends and companions in a happy, tolerant, and purposeful manner.

There is an old truism which says that nothing succeeds like success. The Fourth Commission of "The Fighting C" has undoubtedly been a success story from the start and has been hailed as such wherever we have been. We have operated from the Atlantic to the Pacific; we shall have steamed about 100,000 miles and have carried out everything asked of us from searching for survivors of Lakonia to active operations like those at Dar-es-Salaam, in the Radfan and in the defence of Malaysia. We have taken part in important exercises as the major unit, and by the time we reach Portsmouth we shall have "shown the Flag" far and wide as "Ambassadors Extraordinary." I am very proud indeed to have had the privilege of commanding such a splendid company throughout CENTAUR's finest commission.

THE STORY

In the summer of 1963, things were a bit . . .

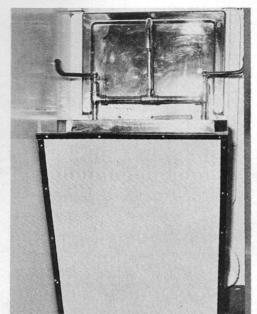

... upside down ...

... and rather messy, inside

So with a lot of paint

and some new fittings,

and a quick check over

by the Commander-in-Chief, Portsmouth,

We commissioned on 16th November, 1963

with tea

and cake,

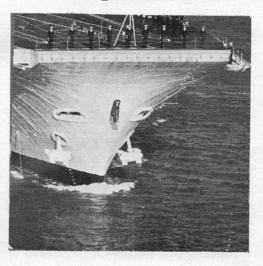

made the most of our last minutes with the family,

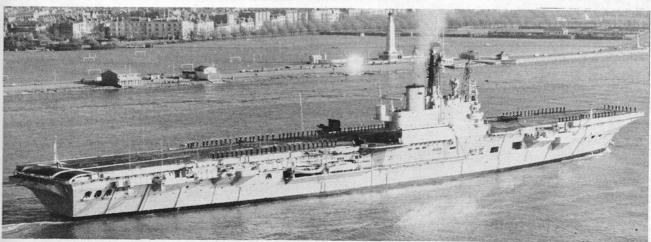

pulled a few levers,

and pushed her

... out to sea for trials.
