Daily Telegraph, 26th June 1972

Peterborough: "Little evidence remains aboard of this meeting though. (Rhodesia Conference at Gibraltar held in H.M.S. Fearless in 1968.) A photograph of himself presented to the ship by Mr. Wilson is officially said to have been 'lost at sea'."

Sunday Telegraph, 11th June 1972

"But one item of equipment will not sail with her to Lisbon (H.M.S. Fearless). A signed photograph of Mr. Wilson said to be in statesmanlike pose and presented by him to the ship's Wardroom, was later reported to have been lost at sea."

Sunday Telegraph, 1st October 1972

After Lord Carrington had been photographed with the so-called missing Wilson picture.

"The one in my picture, presumably a replacement, is said to be kept under lock and key, emerging only on special occasions."

EDITOR'S NOTE

Well tried Desmond Wettern but not quite true. Here are photographs of them both!
