

THE WEAPON AND ELECTRICAL DEPARTMENT

The power behind the throne, grease for the elbow. . . you name it we provide it. Guns to shoot your target. . . you peel it, we'll supply the electricity to fry it. If you can't see a star to steer by we will power the rudders and direct you with radar pictures to protect you. If it's under the waves or in the air we will detect and display it for you.

If you want the whole ships company told, we will switch off the music and broadcast it to you; telegrams, signals, radio telephones are our speciality to provide for you.

In short you wouldn't be.....without us.

Harken all ye pot smoking sea dragons and all ye hippie mermaids, sharks & sea creatures, to the words of J. King Neptune, sole ruler of the Oceans deep.

Be it known to all ye that:
Christopher John Zaccaria
was adjudged by my Courts aboard

H. M. S. Aurora was punished for sins past and has been found a fitting subject of our domain.

I therefore command all ye aforementioned beasties, to show due respect and deference,
protection and concern, wherever he may sail

Given under my hand this day

signed, Neptunes Rex
